JUDGMENT REVOKING DISCHARGE AND RECOVERING MONIES DUE TO THE ESTATE

The Complaint of David R. DuBois, Trustee, Plaintiff, having been filed herein on 7/31/15 and Plaintiff having filed his Motion for Default Judgment and it appearing that the Court having made an Entry of Default herein, this matter is now submitted for Judgment; evidence having been submitted and considered, the Court now finds that the Debtor(s) [Defendant(s) herein] failed and refused to obey the lawful Order of this Court dated 7/5/17 by not having turned over certain property of the estate, namely the receipts showing how the $5,900.00 in cash withdrawals from the RushCard account ending 6669 between 3/1/17 through 3/27/17 was spent, that plaintiff is entitled to a judgment in said amount against the debtor(s), and that the discharge granted to the Debtor(s) should be revoked pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §727(d)(3) and to the Complaint filed herein and it is therefore

Red Leslie HZ

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the discharge of HARGROVE, LESLIE, be, and it hereby is, revoked pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §727(d)(3)/11 U.S.C. §(a)(6)(A) and Legal Paragraph One of the Complaint herein

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that revocation of discharge does not constitute denial of discharge under 11 U.S.C. §727(a), and thus that the bar of nondischargeability provided by 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(10) does not apply to debts which were scheduled or could have been scheduled in the case number 17-20810.
